

Day School.

Welcome to day school!

Our day school service is the perfect way to help busy dog guardians bring consistency into their training routine! This service has a Candor Canine Coach working one-on-one with your pup during the day while you're away at work!

 Please note, for best results, private training is always recommended, Day School service is to help provide consistency and build foundations on skills that you are also working on when a coach is not present.

 This service is only available on weekdays during the day
